THE NEWSLETTER OF THE NO. 6 RCAF DUNNVILLE MUSEUM

MAY 2015

Local Scouts Sleep Over at the No. 6

by Vincent Bulman, Troop Scouter, 1st Winona

Friday night is usually quiet at the No. 6 RCAF Dunnville Museum, but not on Friday, April 17. That night, nine Scouts, two Venturer Scouts and five leaders from 2nd Dunnville, 1st Winona and 1st North Grimsby arrived with their kit to spend the night in the hangar beneath the aircraft! The group was met by Museum volunteers Tim Logan and Paul Segui. Paul served them his delicious chili in the meeting room. Several leaders showed their appreciation by having second helpings. One leader--who shall remain unnamed--is said to have had four servings. There should be a badge for that!

Most Scouts laid out their sleeping mats and bags below the Yale trainer. A few preferring a higher ceiling slept on the performance stage located at one end of the hangar. The leaders settled in either next to the Nieuport 17 or the Fleet Finch. After playing games, including "Flight Simulator", the Scouts went off to bed and continued making noise well past 12:30 a.m.

A coffee crunch ... and a taste of history

Reveille was not sounded, however, Scouters Vincent and Enrico were the first up. Not finding any coffee in their supplies (our quartermaster, Scouter Gary, doesn't drink coffee), Vincent and Enrico drove to the Tim Horton's in Dunnville and returned with coffee for all. Everyone got up and was served a hearty breakfast of bacon and pancakes prepared by several Scouts in the Museum kitchen. After grub, everybody packed up hurriedly and was greeted by Museum members Ian Durand and Ross Watterworth. The group broke into two; one group went with Ian and the other with Ross for a tour of the Museum and plane collection. Both men were extremely knowledgeable and visibly attached to the Museum.

Jim Bird and Joe Weir, veterans of World War II, came to recount their contrasting experiences. Joe, who was found to need eyeglasses after enlisting, was trained in communications and sent to England for further instruction, and participated in the landing at Normandy. Jim, who became a pilot, completed part of his training at the No. 6 Service Flying Training School. He was sent on to other assignments in Canada and England. Jim volunteered for the Pacific Theatre and the war ended shortly after.

Group gratitude

Our combined groups would like to thank Museum volunteers Tim Logan, Paul Segui, Ian Durand and Ross Watterworth, and veterans Jim Bird and Joe Weir for giving us a terrific tour. We shall remember it for a long time.

611 Harvard Squadron Air Cadets Prepare for Annual Ceremonial Review

611 Harvard Squadron Air Cadets has been active for 33 years in Dunnville. Many young men and women have walked through the Squadron doors and have become outstanding leaders and citizens. Many have gone through the Canadian Forces where they are now full and part-time members and serve our country.

The Air Cadet program offers many opportunities for the Cadets. Flying, leadership, fitness, music and marksmanship are just a few. The Cadets have a chance to attend summer camps where they expand their knowledge and make life-long friends. 611 Harvard Squadron currently has 45 enthusiastic, determined and motivated Cadets. They parade every Tuesday evening from 6:30-9:00 p.m. at the Dunnville Legion. Anyone from the ages 12-18 can join!

The 611 Squadron is currently rehearsing for its 32nd Annual Ceremonial Review, which will take place on Saturday, May 30, in the hangar of the No. 6 Museum. This is a day that the Cadets show off what they have learned throughout the training year and are awarded for their hard work. Guests are welcome and are asked to be seated by 1:45 p.m. The parade starts at 2 p.m. Come see what these amazing Cadets are all about!

Vintage Fire Truck Purchased

The Museum was offered a deal it couldn't refuse last month--a vintage fire truck with all its original equipment and in excellent condition. The fire truck was in operation at the Brantford Airport in the 1970s. It was purchased for $2,000, and was moved to the Museum at no cost by Chris Ricker of CJ Ricker Mobile Maintenance. The vehicle is expected to be used at community events such as parades where it will pull the Museum's scale model of the Harvard and display our advertising banners. It's sure to draw attention to the Museum.

Aircraft Profile: Fleet Finch

Among the Museum's vintage aircraft is a Fleet Finch. These planes were used extensively at Elementary Flying Training Schools (EFTS). Students graduated from an EFTS before coming to a Service Flying Training School (SFTS) such as the No. 6 at Dunnville, where Harvards and Yales were the primary aircraft used for training.

Our Fleet Finch 16 B (RCAF Finch MK II), #4708, is a refined version of a 1934 design with structural strengthening suitable for aerobatics. It was built by Canadian Fleet Aircraft Ltd. in Fort Erie. With the RCAF designation C-GQWE, this plane served at the No. 7 EFTS in Windsor and the No. 13 EFTS in St. Eugene, before going to St. Thomas for repair training. Powered by a 125-hp Kinner B5 5-cylinder, air-cooled radial engine, it had a maximum speed of 104 mph, a cruising speed of 85 mph and a service ceiling of 10,500 feet.

This plane was extensively renovated by a local flying enthusiast. It was purchased by the owner of the Dunnville Airport, Russ Cameron, and donated to the Museum. It flew up until the closure of the Airport to flight operations and was then mothballed, but it is ready to fly again if the opportunity arises.

A Tip of the Wing...

Many thanks to the 2015 sponsors of our vintage aircraft and the flags that fly over the Memorial Garden.

World War II Tribute Pin and Certificate Available

To mark the 75th anniversary of Canada's engagement in World War II, living Canadian veterans of World War II are eligible to receive a commemorative lapel pin and certificate in recognition of their service to Canada. The program began in September 2014 and continues through the end of 2020.

Veterans (or their families on their behalf) can apply three ways:

- Fill out an application online.
(Go to www.veterans.gc.ca. Search for "commemorative medals". Scroll down the list and click on "Second World War Tribute Request". You will be routed to the application.)
- Call Veterans Affairs Canada (VAC) at 1-866-522-2122 to have a form sent by mail.
- Visit a VAC or Service Canada office where staff will print out a form.

The design of the lapel pin is based on the original "Victory Nickel". It features a flaming torch and a large "V" standing both for victory and the denomination of the coin. The coin was originally circulated from 1943-1945, and was reissued in 2005 to commemorate the anniversary of VE-Day.

DOORS OPEN HALDIMAND 2015

Saturday, September 19

From April through October for the past 13 years, communities across Ontario have opened the doors to hundreds of interesting heritage sites. The No. 6 RCAF Dunnville Museum has been one of Haldimand County's sites in the past, and will be again in 2015.

The theme for 2015 is Sports. The pilot trainees, instructors, and staff at the No. 6 Service Flying Training School participated enthusiastically in base sports events, and played against other RCAF teams and local community teams. They held track and field events, and played softball, volleyball, basketball, soccer, hockey and other sports. The Museum plans to have a special display related to sports activities at the No. 6 SFTS. For a list of all the Doors Open Haldimand 2015 sites, visit <http://www.doorsopenontario.on.ca/Events/Haldimand-County.aspx>.
